

Tribute to a Fighter Pilot

Bob Hoover

Friday, August 24 ● 6:00 – 11:00 p.m.

Wings Over the Rockies Air & Space Museum invites you to join us in an Air Force Officer's Club setting for the annual Tribute to a Fighter Pilot event honoring Bob Hoover, on Friday, August 24th.

Bob is a World War Two fighter pilot, test pilot, and master of aerobatics. Hear Bob and other pilots share their epic tales of flight in a Happy Hour setting, where guests are encouraged to wear flight suits and flight attire.

Considered by his peers as the "pilot's pilot." He stole a German fighter as an escaping WWII POW and was almost first to fly the X-1 past the sound barrier.

Don't miss the legendary tales of Bob Hoover and all those who love to fly.

Attendance will include individuals from both general aviation and military backgrounds.

Proceeds from this event will help create permanent exhibits honoring fighter pilots, combat veterans and their aircraft.

Tickets are:

Pilot: $50 per person—open seating

Flight Crew: $750 per table—reserved seating for ten

Hors d'oeuvres and cash bar.

Purchase tickets at wingsmuseum.org or call Wings Over the Rockies at 303.360.5360 X110.

Tribute to a Fighter Pilot honors aviation personalities and heroes who embrace the Fighter Pilot image of superior pilot knowledge and flight skills.

The 2012 Tribute is the third hosted by Wings. The first honored retired General Robin Olds and second honored retired General Steve Ritchie.

Wings' is located in Denver's historic Lowry Air Force Base Hangar number one.
